WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

The Constitution of India authorizes the State Governments to take measures for the care and protection of Women and Children. It not only grants equality to Women but also empowers the State to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of Women. In accordance with these provisions, several progressive measures have been taken by Government of Karnataka with a view to ensure a State of well being for Women and Child Development. A separate Directorate for Women and Children was created in 1975, with the objective of giving the much-needed impetus to the holistic development of Women and Children.

The major thrust of the programmes of the Department of Women and Child Development is to ensure the all round development of Children and empowerment of Women. The Department aims at economic development and integration of Women into the mainstream of economy, equity and social justice. The strategy adopted for the programmes in the areas of Women's development involves empowerment of Women through awareness generation, education and greater emphasis on skill development and income generating activities, so as to enable Women to enhance their earning capacity and status in life.

Again, to ensure that Children get protection against neglect, abuse and exploitation, the department has taken up programmes and Schemes to guarantee their basic rights including survival, protection, development and full participation in social, cultural, educational and other endeavour for their individual growth and well being. The emphasis has been on improving the delivery of services to the Children and also to achieve convergence of services available for Women and Children.

Besides expanding the on-going programmes, the department has evolved new programmes and proposed amendments in social legislations relating to Women and Children. It has promoted and assisted the voluntary sector significantly in the implementation of government policies and programmes for Women and Children.

II. Programmes for Child Development

Declaration adopted by the UN General Assembly at the 27th Special Session on 10th May 2002.

- 1) First preference to Children
- 2) Eradicate poverty: invest in Children
- 3) Leave no Child behind
- 4) Care for every Child
- 5) Educate every Child
- 6) Protect Children from harm and exploitation
- 7) Protect Children from war
- 8) Combat HIV/AIDS
- 9) Listen to Children and ensure their participation
- 10) Protect the earth for Children

As per the 2011 census, in Karnataka 11.2% of the total population consist of Children below 6 years. The programmes, Policies and Schemes of the Department are aimed at a holistic development of Children in terms of tackling Declining sex ratio, Infant mortality, Maternal Mortality, Health and Nutrition issues, Early Childhood education, Protection of rights of Children, Prevention of Child abuse and exploitation, Provision of care and protection etc.

INTEGRATED CHILD DEVELOPMENT SERVICES SCHEME : Keeping in view the vision that future of India is the future of the children, the Department is laying greater emphasis and making, well deserved concrete efforts in the implementation of all existing Government policies and programmes for the welfare and development of children which is an investment in itself, for their overall social economic growth.

The Integrated Child Development Services Scheme was started in Karnataka on 2nd October 1975 with a pilot project at T.Narasipura in Mysore District with just 100 Anganwadi Centres. Since then, the programme has expanded to all the revenue taluks in the state. The welfare of pregnant women, nursing mothers, adolescent girls and children below 6 years has acquired a prime place in the programme.

Objectives of ICDS :-

- To improve the nutritional & health status of children (0-6 years)
- To lay the foundation for proper physical, psychological and emotional development of the child
- To reduce incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school drop-out
- To achieve effective coordination of policy and implementation among various departments to promote child development
- To enhance the capability of the mother to look after the normal health and nutritional needs of the child, through proper health and nutrition education.

Bhagyalakshmi HOD:2235-02-102-0-25 : Bhagyalakshmi is a flagship programme implemented by Government of Karnataka aimed at improving the sex ratio in the State by encouraging the birth of girl child in the BPL families. The programme also aims to eradicate social evils such as child labour, female foeticide, child marriage and child trafficking. Two girl children born in a BPL family are eligible for enrollment under the scheme.

A fixed amount is deposited with the financial partner namely, Life Insurance Corporation of India from 2006-07 to 2019-20 and the maturity amount is paid to the girl child on completion of 18 years of age only after fulfilling the conditions laid down under the scheme.

“Child Tracking System” software is developed with assistance from NIC to track Bhagyalakshmi beneficiary’s upto the age of 18 years. All information such as health status, education and migration pertaining to the beneficiaries are tracked through the software. As per government order dated: 24-02-2018, eligibility criteria to enroll under the scheme is extended upto two years after the birth of the child.

"Bhagyalakshmi-Sukanya Samurdhi Account Yojana" (2020-21) : From 2006-07 to 2019-20, LIC was the Financial partner of the Scheme, and due to some administrative reasons from 2020-21, the Bhagyalakshmi Scheme is intended to be implemented through the Sukanya Samruddhi Account Scheme through the Postal Department. The name of the Bhagyalakshmi scheme and the conditions for registration of beneficiaries is continued as per earlier criteria.

As per the Govt. order no.MAMAE 87 MAMAA 2020 dated 10-11-2020 Bhagyalakshmi scheme is implemented through the Sukanya Samrudhi Scheme of the Postal Department. An amount of Rs.3,000/- per annum is deposited in the name of two children of BPL families in Sukanya Samruddhi Account scheme for 15 years. Approximate maturity amount will be Rs.1,27,000/- (at present rate of interest) “Withdrawal up to a maximum of fifty percent (50%) of the amount in the Account at the end of financial year proceeding the year of application for withdrawal shall be allowed for the purpose of education of the account holder.

During the year 2022-23 Rs.13704.00 is allocated and a total expenditure of Rs.13703.90 lakhs has been incurred for crediting the accounts of 446373 beneficiaries and including administrative expenses as at the end of March-2023.
